

Information

Market Design and Experimental Economics

Preliminary remarks:

As you already know, the start of classes at universities has been postponed to 20 April due to the corona crisis. The semester will initially start as an online semester. So we planned the lecture and the exercise course in a way that it does not require any physical presence at the university.

Participation:

In order to participate in the course, please register at Moodle using the following link:

<https://moodle.uni-due.de/course/view.php?id=20645>

and the following password:

ExEcon20

In Moodle you will find any information regarding the course.

First lecture April, 21st:

The first lecture is on Tuesday, April 21st, at 8:30 a.m. We will organize this lecture as a video conference. You can enter the video conference via Moodle (see the login details above). The first lecture provides you with the organizational details of this course.
